

Jeremy Winston is an innovative leader that helps individuals share their passions and talents with the global community. He is the founder of The Jeremy Winston Chorale, LLC and Assistant Professor of Music and Chorus Director at Central State University (CSU) in Ohio. He is a visionary with emphasis in orchestral and choral composing, choral directing, orchestral conducting, collegiate education, classical singing, and leadership training.

Passionate about music, Jeremy discovers talent in often-ignored areas of the country and shapes it for national and international stages. Performances with The Jeremy Winston Chorale and CSU Chorus include:

- The White House for President Barack Obama and The First Lady Michelle Obama (2012, 2013, 2015, 2016).
- Gold Medal Champion for World Choir Games: A Choral Competition
- Guest Conductor for Czech National Symphony Orchestra (2016, 2015, 2014)
- Critically acclaimed European tour of Hamburg, Durbach, Frankfurt (Germany), and Strassbourg, France.
- Viral (over 4 million views) YouTube & Facebook Video of flash mob singing Oh, Happy Day in Hamburg, Germany.
- Guest Conductor for EAFIT Symphony Orchestra in Medellin, Colombia (2015).
- Two inaugural performances of Wynton Marsalis' works including All Rise with Los Angeles Symphony Orchestra and Mass with Jazz at Lincoln Center Orchestra.

Before entering education as a full-time instructor, Jeremy served as the Ray Charles Distinguished Chair of Sacred and Choral Music at Wilberforce University where he lead the growth and curriculum development of the program to be the leading major at the institution.

Jeremy's arrangements and compositions have been performed by many leading musicians and musical groups including Grammy-winning group Take6, The Czech National Symphony Orchestra, The St. Louis Symphony Orchestra, Wintley Phipps, and numerous high school, collegiate, and professional ensembles.

In addition to being a professional musician, Jeremy is husband, father of three girls, a squash player, and a cook.
