

The Jeremy Winston Chorale is quickly emerging as one of America's foremost professional ambassadors for choral music. Built with some of the Nation's precious hidden gems, this ensemble pulls together singers from across the Nation to form this outstanding ensemble.

Founded in 2012, The Jeremy Winston Chorale has made an indelible mark in the music community. The Chorale's inaugural performance was at the world's largest choral competition, The World Choir Games in Cincinnati, Ohio. Competing against world-class choirs from around the globe, The Jeremy Winston Chorale was crowned as gold medal champions as Best Gospel Choir, and silver medals for Mixed Chorus (classical music) and Spirituals.

Since winning at The World Choir Games, The Chorale has been featured in many outstanding performances including a performance for President Barack Obama and First Lady Michelle Obama at The White House in December of 2012 and an encore performance in December of 2015. The Chorus was featured as guests performers with The Czech National Symphony in their Prague Proms concert series during the summers of 2015, 2016, and 2019.

In February of 2019, The Chorale presented a Black History concert at the home of the U.S. Ambassador to Colombia in Bogota, Colombia. As ambassadors for the the U.S., the Chorale was greeted with a warm message from Colombia's President.

In 2015, The Chorale embarked on its first international tour with concerts and performances in cities in Germany, France, and Czech Republic. Received with overwhelming enthusiasm by concert-goers and critics The Chorale has received great praise culminating in a viral video of their flash mob at Europa Passage mall in Hambourg, Germany singing in Oh, Happy Day which was the most viewed Facebook video in Germany for 2016. The Chorale regularly presents concerts in local U.S. cities including Washington D.C.; Philadelphia, PA; Atlanta, GA; and more.

They have made their mark as adept performers of all music including the classics of the masters, the negro spirituals, gospel, and popular music with commanding accuracy and outstanding musicianship. They are truly a mark of musical exceptionalism.
